BERLIN ADMITS BIG LOSSES
BRITISH IN NEW DRIVE, GAIN ON THE ANCRECAMPAIGN CORRUPTION FUND INVESTIGATION BY SENATE, SOON AS CONGRESS MEETSAdministration Officials Have Planned Sweeping Action in the Matter.

TO CALL BOTH PARTIES.

Managers Will Be Forced to Tell Where Funds Went—Light on Colonizing.WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—A Senatorial investigation of alleged misuse of money in the Presidential campaign was announced definitely to-day by administration officials.Preliminary plans have been made and a resolution providing the machinery for the inquiry is ready to be introduced soon after Congress convenes next month.It was stated to-day that evidence was being collected, but particulars were not disclosed. The plan is to call those actually in charge of campaign finances before the Senate Committee and investigate the details of their transactions.Various reports concerning use of money in certain States have reached Democratic headquarters as well as Republican. Investigation into alleged attempts to colonize illegal voters in Indiana and West Virginia particularly, was begun several weeks before the election.In those States Democratic leaders are planning to contest the election of United States Senators. Before the polls had closed last Tuesday charges of corruption were being openly made by Democratic chieftains and predictions were freely circulated, that exposures would follow the election.Evidence is being gathered upon which to base contests in the election of Harry S. New and James E. Watson as Senators from Indiana, and Representative Howard Sutherland as Senator in West Virginia. Now, on the face of the Indiana returns, defeated Majority Leader Kern and Watson won from Senator Tammart.
Sutherland in West Virginia defeated Senator Chilton.It has been charged by the Democrats, that negroes were colonized from the South, in States where the Republicans triumphed by small majorities.If contests are brought, they will have to be initiated in the new Senate, as each legislative body is the judge of its own members. The Democrats will control the new Senate by a majority of twelve votes.There will be at least twenty-two contests in the House of the Sixty-fifth Congress, which convenes in December, 1917. The Democrats of the Senate do not need the Senators from Indiana and West Virginia to control the upper body of Congress, but they want to punish the Republicans by a protest against alleged methods used to carry those States.While the statement does not name any States in which investigations are under way, it is known that a large force of special agents has been working in Michigan, Minnesota, Ohio, New York, Illinois, Indiana and other States. Officials decline to say in what States evidence has been obtained.In an official statement this afternoon the Department of Justice an-

DRY NEW YEAR'S EVE
IN CITY BECAUSE IT
FALLS ON A SUNDAYCabaret Proprietors Hear Mayor Will Demand Liquor Law Be Enforced.There is consternation among cabaret-restaurant and hotel owners over official tips from City Hall that Mayor Mitchell is powerless to extend liquor license privileges for New Year's Eve, which falls on Sunday. This is interpreted to mean that New York City's farrowed to the year 1916 will be one of the very quietest in history. Mayor Mitchell proposes asking Police Commissioner Woods to enforce the law.The excise law of the State requires that liquor shall not be sold between the hours of midnight Saturday and 6 o'clock Monday morning. But one exception is made to this rule, and that is in the case of hotels. Here guests may be served with intoxicating drink at their meals all day Sunday and until 12 o'clock Monday morning. After that hour it is not even lawful to serve guests with drink in these rooms.An official of the State Excise Department clarifies the situation, by quoting the law, which is as follows:"It shall not be lawful for any person to sell, offer, or expose for sale, or give away any liquor on or Sunday or before 6 o'clock in the morning on Monday; (b) or any other day between 1 and 6 o'clock in the morning in cities of the first and second class."This means, explains the State excise official, "that liquor cannot be sold anywhere on any Sunday, whether or not it happens to be New Year's Eve, except in hotels, which are exempted in another provision of the State law not mentioned in the A and B sub-divisions."The State excise official was asked if a cabaret restaurant temporarily converted into a Rialto Law hotel could come under the excise protection afforded the legitimate hotel.The State Excise Department does not recognize a Rialto Law hotel and has no official knowledge of the existence of such," was the reply.WANT WILSON TO MAKE ANOTHER TOUR IN WESTIt Is Urged That in This Way He Would Recognize the Support He Received at Election.WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—President Wilson is being strongly urged to make a Western trip before the convening of Congress. The idea is being supported by many who are advising the President that he should in that way recognize the support which the Western States gave in his reelection and at the same time pay the West the personal visit he was forced to abandon at the time of the San Francisco Exposition.Many telegrams are to the President's desk inviting him to a Tour of giving Day celebration in Denver.
His plans to visit the West, and some of the officials already know what he is to do about the proposed trip.RAILROADS TO PUSH 8-HOUR LAW FIGHT
DESPITE BIG FOURSuits Will Be Filed Within Two Weeks by All the Eastern Systems.Want Distinction Between Flat 8-Hour Day and One Involving More Pay.Regardless of what the Brother-hoods think of it, the railroads of the country have decided to go ahead with the legal programme concerning the eight-hour day law agreed on last September and started by President Hip-pley of the Santa Fe. Within the next ten days suits will be filed in every court within the jurisdiction of the eastern roads.The highest paid lawyers of the country have been engaged to assist the regular legal talent of the eastern roads in trying to discover strong judicial opinions in cases involving the broad distinction between a "flat eight-hour day and an eight-hour day that means an increase in wages."It became known to-day that Judge Lovett's visit to this city at this time was to attend what is described as an "informal chat" of the heads of big roads. This "chat" began yesterday at the Union League Club and was continued, between bites, well into the night. Judge Lovett was told that the lines east were about ready to enter suits similar to the one entered by his road, the Union Pacific, at Omaha.The following five roads will institute new suits before the week is over: Pennsylvania, New York Central,
New York, New Haven and Hartford, Boston and Maine, Erie, Delaware and Hudson, Lackawanna—in fact, all the anthracite roads.HOLDS THE SUITS ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY.Counsel for the roads has reasoned that at least five out of nine courts will enjoin somebody or give an opinion that may be carried to the United States Supreme Court. Judge Lovett told a reporter for The Evening World last night that he regarded these suits as absolutely necessary."The Adamson bill is so sweeping in its financial effects on the roads that, in justice to themselves, every road in the country must do as we have done. It is time now to determine whether such an act is within the spirit of the Constitution. I am advised that it is not."Elisha Lee of the Pennsylvania chairman of the Managers' Conference, remained in the city to-day and is now conferring at the Grand Central with several road managers East and West. An agent of the conference went to Washington last night to prepare for another invasion of the capital next Monday by all the managers. The Newlands Commission will begin their public hearings on the general railroad situation, and the roads expect the eight-hour day probably will be brought forward.The Brotherhood Chiefs will also be in Washington at that time and another conference may be asked.

PRESIDENT'S VOTE GROWS STRONGER IN RECOUNT OF RETURNS IN CALIFORNIAPicks Up an Additional 190 in Twelve of the Fifty-Eight Counties So Far Canvassed.

BIG COUNTIES ARE SLOW

It May Take Ten Days to Get the Complete Returns Fully Tabulated.SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 14.— With the official canvass of the vote cast in the recent Presidential election proceeding rapidly in all parts of the State, President Wilson has a net gain of 190 votes so far, on the face of returns already received.Twelve of the fifty-eight counties of the State have completed their official count. In four of these Hughes showed small gains, aggregating 101 over the unofficial figures tabulated by the United Press. In the other eight Wilson showed gains aggregating 291.Secretary of State Jordan at Sacramento, believes most of the smaller counties of the State will complete their official count by to-morrow night, but that it will require a week or ten days for the big counties to finish. In San Francisco, Los Angeles and Alameda Counties, the work is proceeding slowly and every vote is being closely scrutinized by both Republican and Democratic watchers.In Los Angeles County the count was resumed to-day. Wilson had made a net gain of six votes.
Very few discrepancies had been found. In Los Angeles County the votes were numerous; fifty have been found—all in small totals.HUGHES TAKES BIG SPURT IN THE MINNESOTA VOTEReturns From Hennepin County Raise His Dwindling Plurality—He Is Now 1,088 Ahead.ST. PAUL, Nov. 14.—Just as it was beginning to appear this afternoon that the revised official returns from the country districts were about to wipe out the small Hughes plurality in Minnesota the Republican outlook became rosy again with the filing of official returns from all but one precinct in Hennepin County. These returns more than offset the steady Hughes loss in the last two days and placed his lead at 1,088.The vote as it stands late this afternoon is Hughes 17,047, Wilson 128,559.
In the morning, when the returns from the missing precincts of Koochi-cong County, the revised vote of St.
Louis County and the small change in Becker County were reported, Hughes led by 155.MR. HUGHES WILL NOT GIVE UP ELECTION YETOne week after election Charles E.
Hughes still refused to-day to acknowledge the victory to President Wilson and continued to maintain seclusion and silence in his apartment at the Hotel Astor.His campaign manager, William B.
Wilcox, said there was no chance of front and that they would await the final count of votes in close States, principally California, before giving up.Mr. Wilcox was almost alone today in Republican National headquarters. All the party managers have given up and gone home.FREEZING WEATHER HERE TO-MORROW,
SAYS FORECASTERTemperature Expected to Fall to 24, With Possible Flurries of Snow.Freezing weather with a likelihood of slight snow flurries is to be the lot of New York beginning to-morrow morning. This big drop in temperature is following in the wake of a storm centre which to-day is holding forth in the vicinity of Nantucket and Block Island.The thermometer has been dropping gradually all day. This morning at 8 o'clock the mercury stood at 55 degrees and at 2 o'clock this afternoon it recorded 49 degrees. This tumbling will continue during the night and the city will awake, say the forecasters, with the mercury at 24 degrees.This means a drop of 31 degrees in twenty-four hours. To-morrow morning's temperature will be eight degrees below the freezing mark.12 TO 18 INCHES OF SNOW REPORTED IN THE ADIRONDACKS.UTICA, Nov. 14.—Reports from the interior of the Adirondacks are to the effect that there is from twelve to eighteen inches of snow in the woods and that many of the lakes have frozen over. Guides say they have no recollection of winter setting in so early in that section. In the Mohawk Valley last night the first snow of the season fell to a depth of about three inches.ROCHESTER, Nov. 14.—Rochester awoke this morning to find six inches of snow on the ground. It continued to snow most of the day.GLOVERSVILLE, N. Y., Nov. 14.— This city has its third snowfall of the season last night and to-day.
More than three inches has fallen in the lowlands, and farther back in the north country it is even deeper.SENECA FALLS, N. Y., Nov. 14.— Seneca County had its first snowfall of the season during the night, when four inches fell. The temperature was 28.SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 14.—The snowfall in Syracuse during the night and morning was 2.5 inches. Trolley lines suffered to a considerable extent.CLEVELAND, Nov. 14.—The first snow of the season fell here to-day with temperature close to the freezing point.CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—Chicago thermometers registered to-day the lowest temperature of the season. The reading was 16 degrees above zero at 7 A. M. A light snow fell during the night.DETROIT, Nov. 14.—A heavy snowstorm is sweeping the northern part of lower Michigan to-day. A mass of snow fell at Bay City this morning.MONTPELIER, Vt., Nov. 14.—Ten inches of snow was under a blanket of ice on the ground to-day. It had fallen during the night in the record time.DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 14.—New reports made in many parts of Texas today indicate a heavy snowfall. In degrees below freezing. At Dallas the mercury went to 25 degrees.

MRS. FLAGLER TO WED
GIRLHOOD ADMIRER
HERE TO-MORROWOne of several weddings set for Horse Show week taken place tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pembroke Jones, when Mrs. Mary Kenan Flagler, widow of Henry M. Flagler, will become the bride of Judge Robert Worth Blin-ham of Louisville, Ky.This is the culmination of a quarter-of-a-century-old romance, as one of the suitors for the hand of Mary Lily Kenan was young Blingham, then a student in the University of New York. But circumstances parted them and Miss Kenan became the bride of Mr. Flagler. Last spring the couple met again at White Sulphur Springs, with the result that the old romance was revived.After their marriage Mr. and Mrs.
Bingham will go South, and they will divide their time between Louisville, Palm Beach and New York.VOTE FOR CONGRESS NOW STANDS: DEM. 212, REP. 211Nine Districts Still in Doubt, and There Is No Telling How "Outsiders" Will Line Up.WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Representative Boreman, of Michigan, Chairman of the Democratic Congressional Committee, declared at the White House to-day that control of the next House of Representatives still was in doubt. He said the Democrats were certain of 212 votes, and the Republicans of 211, with nine districts still in doubt. He takes for granted there will be a large number of contests.Any estimate of how the Progressives, Socialist and Independent will vote on organizations, he declared premature.Mr. Boreman says no prospects for an extra session.NEW YORK SOLDIER VOTES ARRIVE FROM THE BORDERNine-Tenths of the Ballots Cast at the Border Reach the Secretary of State.ALBANY, Nov. 14.—Nine-tenths of the ballots cast in last Tuesday's election by the New York National Guardians on the Mexican border reached the office of the Secretary of State to-day.Each ballot was sealed in an envelope bearing the name and voting address of the Guardian who cast it.
These envelopes were sorted out by the clerks in the Election Bureau and were then forwarded to the Bureau of elections in the department of State, which is now the guardian of the ballots.DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 14.—New re-

TO REVOLUTIONIZE
THE AUTO INDUSTRYDeclares That by Use of Many Millions of Dollars He Would Double or Treble Output.DETROIT, Nov. 14.—Henry Ford, the automobile manufacturer, on the witness stand to-day, at the Dodge junction hearing, declared that his plans for spending many millions of dollars to double or treble the capacity of the Ford Motor Car Company's plant, would probably revolutionize the automobile business.Ford admitted that he contemplated spending millions of dollars to obtain ore deposits and more millions to erect blast furnaces on the Detroit River.When his plans are completed, he testified, his company will be able to ship ore to its furnaces and there make castings direct from the ore.
Uniform castings of great strength would result, Ford said, and he added that lack of uniformity in castings had been one of the great problems which automobile makers have faced.HAIG DRIVES AHEAD;
